THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

VOL. XXI.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA. WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 24, 1889.

Among the Boomers of Oklahoma,

TWO CLAIM-JUMPERS KILLED

The Rush For Town Lots at Guthrie.

A MASS MEETING OF CITIZENS CALLED.

The Lawyers Thick as Bees in the New Country.

GUTHRIE, Oklahoma, April 23 .- [Special Telegraphic Correspondence Constitution.]-The general impression is that short work will be made of law-breakers, and a very wholesome terror exists among evil-doers in consequence. If trouble arises it will be in the shape of an attempt to dislodge some of the lot owners, who took rather mean advantage of their positions as deputy marshais to forestall more regular lot claimants. Many soldiers have also taken claims, but it is not supposed they will attempt to hold them.

SPECULATION IN TOWN LOTS commenced at once. Yesterday backs met the trains, and the drivers shouted, "This way for lots at a dotlar a piece." For a dollar the lot hunters were driven to the vacant lots, and left to get their dollar's worth. One man carned five dollars three times in claim, and immediately selling out such rights as he possessed. These lots were poorly located. Near the depot a man ran up and down among the lot claimants, offering any one $300 for a lot. He met with no response and several when applied to for a price, said

The crowd at the land office cannot by any possibility receive attention. Every one who has seured his lot is in a hurry to file, and thus make assurance doubly sure. The applicants

TWO SERIOUS DIFFICULTIES,

First, in describing their lots, and second, in the fact that most of them are not on the town site reservation, but pioneers in western towns regard the difficulties very complacently, and only about twelve persons out of the thousands who went in this morning have got discour About four miles from Guthrie and a mile

Once a few deer, feeding in a pleasant vale on the left, grew uneasy, and commenced running slowly to and fro as if alarmed. All at once THE CRACK OF A RIFLE was heard and the graceful animals com menced a wild gallop up the prairle, disappearing finally behind the timber along the creek Directly afterwards two horsemen came in view, one carrying a rifle. They were not hurrying but were rather looking for a land mark. Suddenly they stopped, sprang quickly to the ground, and commenced vigor-ous work in the way of defining their claim boundaries. Then close at hand a man CREPT OUT OF THE BUSH and had a look around; apparently satisfied, he returned and brought a bundle, which he put down on the ground, and then used as a seat, he struck a match, lighted his pipe, smoked complacently. Gradually a long distance came near, and a bend in the road caused quite a horseshoe appearance to be imparted to the advancing column A little later and a wagon appeared from the opposite direction where timber is heavy, and where safe hiding place from the soldiers had been sought. The driver knew where he was going and soon stopped on a quarter section whose leveliness was an excuse for the boom-

FROM OKLAHOMA CITY reports of a mighty rush of town lot becomers are to hand. The ordinary north bound midday train yesterday brought very few passen-gers, owing to the large crowds at Purcell and the disposition to be disorderly. The trains set down passengers in the yard, and then ran quickly through the depot, but the special trains from Purcell crossed the line at and immediately after noon. The coming city, which takes its name from the territory, was soon crowded with business men and specula-tors. It may be relied to run

* SHOT DEAD BY A BOOMER
west of the town site. The man who was shot took lunch an hour before his death with a representative of The Constitution. He gave his name as S. T. Comis, and said he had come from Franklin county, Mo. He was about thirty years of age, of medium height and powerfully built. His curly black hair and bronzed face would attract attention anywhere, and when he laughed, as he did frequently, he displayed a row of exception-ally white teeth. The feature of the lunch was the exchanging of experiences, and Comis old his story with a mixture of banter and etermination which was quite entertaining. He said he rode in with a friend, and as they came through they found nearly every piece of ground homesteaded by men who had been hiding with their wagons in the bush, but when they got close to the stream which runs in the rear of the Guthrie depot, they came upon an apparently unclaimed quarter of a section, which they at once appropriated. A few minutes later a man came out of the woods and ordered them off. He said he had been hiding for a month, and none could get that 160 acres, unless they buried him first. All offers to divide were rejected. The words Comis was heard to speak were:

"We're going back over the creek, and we're oing to sleep on our claim," SHARP REPORT OF A REVOLVER

vas heard from the direction described, and lirectly following a man was seen running up he hill at breakneck speed. It is presumed to is the squatter alluded to, and that he fired the shot. Men coming from the direction said there was nothing the matter, and it was very hard to get information. But after a long search a body, which was readily recognized as Comis's, was found in the woods. Some men were trying to conceal and cover up the body, and the only information to be gathered was that in the course of an altercation the boomer had shot Comis in the breast; that he had died soon afterward. The soldiers were completely in the dark as to the tragedy, and none of them were prosent. The denials, in-deed, had the effect of discrediting the whole affair, but the facts here given are exactly as seen, and are not based on hearsay or rumor. Some Texan hot heads talked very loudly, and one went so far as to threaten to shoot a rehalf an hour by staking out a porter who asked his name. The reporter speedily retreated.

> THE CITY CONTINUES TO GROW rapidly. Last night there were over 700 tents pitched, and thousands of people walked about all night, while others took what rest they could on the ground and around the depot. The enterprise of several new comers in establishing restaurant tents is promising a god-send. The food provided is, of course, rough in the extreme. Bread seems to have been over-looked, or at least unpacked, and of biscuits and crackers the supply is very limited indeed. At one tent a bushel of boiled beans were served out cold on tin plates and dishes, with very poor coffee. Or milk and sugar there were none. Beans and coffee formed the entire bill of fare, but > some enterprising individuals filled buckets at the creek and peddled water among the rowd at five cents a glass. This water was unnleasant. Two of the new banks secured ocations yesterday, but one of them had to go half a mile behind the land office before he could find a vacant lot. The Guthrie house (hotel) opened business with thirteen tents and managed to provide very fair accommodations for a limited number.

> TWENTY-EIGHT LAND LAWYERS had their shingles out in quick time and did considerable business in the way of advising town lot seekers. Over twenty restaurants will be at work the moment their baggage and freight arrives, and there is a good supply of food on the road. The railroad company has handled the passenger traffic admirably, and is now trying to cope with the freight and express ousiness. The offices are mobbed by applicants, who stand, checks in hand, and beg the clerks to attend to them at once. The piles of trunks, valices, and bundles are so high that it is exceedingly difficult to find the articles denot the word was passed around that there

Register Barnes reported a busy day, but said that very few of the applicants really filed anything. The first family to locate a claim was that of C. F. Russell, of Laporte, Ind., but the first filing at the land office was by William Johnson, who filed a town plat for Guthrie. The first man to complete a homestead filing was Mark S. Cone, of Fort Smith, Ark. The first soldier's declaratory statement was Burton Turner, private in company I, Sixth regiment of Illinois eavalry.

Four extra clerks came in from Washington, two of whom stayed here and the other two going on to Oklahoma station. Mr. Admire reports from Kingfisher that he will tance from the railroad makes his district quite econdary to this one at present, but before long the overflow of disappointed population from here will crowd it. During last evening and this morning the farmers, who have abandoned their newly acquired claims in dis-gust, have come in in large numbers. One of these, Abec Homecraft, of Conway county

But friend knew the country very well, and we lost no time, but every inch of bottom land was occupied by squatters, and the further we rode along the river bank the more of these so sandy and red that you could not grow beans on it, unless it rained twice a week all through the season. We came on here to rest up and shall go back. I wouldn't live on such land a month.'

Another man said he had located one likely Very few people had brought lamps or lanterns with them, and fewer had oil, and hence the new city was in darkness a great portion of the night, but some had lights in heir tents, and being mostly of thin substance the reflection of the inmates undressing was very peculiar. Early this morning . WAGONS BEGAN TO ARRIVE in great numbers, several loaded with tents and others with lumber and houses in erection. Those who could secure help quickly commenced building, and already houses are appearing among the tents. One wagon brought a small house complete, and dumped it on a lot the owner had secured in advance. This is called the Elite restaurant, and is the first building devoted to feeding the crowds, all its predecessors having been tents. The work of unloading tents has also commenced. Hams are selling at fifty cents a pound, and a shipment of crackers from St. Louis is realizing a little fortune for its owner. Crackers of moderate size fetch five cents each. Ginger bread ten cents and everything else in proportion. In fact the man who has more eatables than he actually needs, is able for once to fill an actual want, and acts accordingly. THREE NEWSPAPER OFFICIES have been established, and the plant to run them is expected every hour. One of these is a daily which, while the excitement lasts will do well. The great majority of the citizens are thoroughly well behaved, both peaceable and hospitable. They are all armed almost from top to toe, but this is merely precautionary, and all that is wanted is order.

ORGANIZING THE TOWN. One of the first steps taken was the calling of a meeting in which a committee was ap-pointed to select a town site plat, so that lots ould be improved, and receive the sanction of the interior department. The committee consisted of H. D. Baker, of Kansas; Judge W. H. Clayton of Arkansas, and T. J. Mills of Arkansas City. An arbitration committee was also appointed.

All disputes about claims are to be settled by this committee, which has been named the supreme court of Oklahoma. The committees composed of H. O. Pierce and D. L. Morgan, of Kansas; Henry Bems, of Idaho; Judge Clayton, of Arkansas; R. A. Cameron, f Colorado and J. C. Jameson, of Wisconsin. Late yesterday evening a messenger was

A motion to draw lots for location was lost, nd the meeting adjourned. Town officers are to be elected this evening.

The city now covers three sections, or six times the reserved town site, to say nothing of the straggling lots around. Speculation in lots is already high. Several have changed hands two or three times already. A youth ran ahead of the crowd and sat down, claiming the ground. He sold out for $5 immedi ately, and the buyer realized $25 in a few minutes. The arrival of every train

INCREASED THE VALUE, and in two hours the last buyer sold at $100 profit. This lot is a mile from the depot. Those nearer are held at nearly $1,000, and ome have realized as much as $5,000. Those who are selling out and saving all trouble affecting titles, are probably the wisest in the crowd.

A COLLISION TOOK PLACE on the railroad between here and Arthur at an early hour this morning which is causing an annoying delay in the receipt of provisions

All the night freight traffic was being moved uth, and the several cattle trains were being moved northward the ranches on the Cherokee strip. The train dispatcher sent on a long cat-tle train, and wired to Alfred to keep the line clear. The operator there was exhausted by his continued labors and had fallen asleep. The result was that the freight came along. The trains collided in a cut where there is a slight curve, so that the engineers did not see the danger in time to stop. The cattle train suffered the worst. The engine was turned over. The foremost cattle car was badly telescoped, killing a large number of cattle and injuring others. A wrecking train has not open his office until Thursday. The dis- arrived and is clearing the track, but the delay will make it very

to prevent trouble. There has been no claim jumping and no angry disputing. Within ten rode along the river bank the more of these miles around all is quiet. Every quarter section we met. The best land we could get was took less its claimant and occupant. Unfortunately, this orderly demeanor is not maintained all over the territory.

TWO OFFICIAL RECORDS OF KILLINGS has been received here. Martin Colbart, wealthy half-breed Chickasaw Indian who deals largely in cattle, was killed on the eastern looking quarter section, but found it was no possible use. Another boomer came along and offered him $5 to move off, and he accepted it.

Durcell. It appears that Nolan and Colbart got into a dispute as to the boundaries of the former's claims. Pistois were drawn and the half-breed was killed. Another murder or killing in self-defense is reported by Deputy Marshal Waco. He found the dead body of a stranger lying on the ground about 14 miles west of this place. About 200 yards distant he found a boomer named Martin, with his family. The man was working at a dugout and the woman was quietly preparing break-fast. On being questioned, Martin frankly stated that he had SHOT THE STRANGER. His statement was that with his family he had located on the ground, and had marked out his claim. Awhile afterwards, the stranger came out of the bush and disputed possession. Martin refused to yield, and asked the man to let the dispute be settled by law. The stranger at once drew his revolver and fired at Martin, who immediately returned fire, shooting and killing his assailant. The man had been lying dead in the open air all night. No arrest was made, and Martin's statement was corroborated by his wife and children.

GREAT SUFFERING IS REPORTED on the part of boomers who are unprovided with food, and there is much disappointment expressed. It is reported that Conductor Grady has a claim near here. While his train was running twenty miles an hour, he leaped from his caboose and struck his claim. His brakeman, ran the train into the yards at Ar-kansas City, and the last heard of Grady was he was still on his claim awaiting the arrival of his train.

Brakeman Charlie Danvers jumped from his train, swam the Cottonwood river, and took

GUTHRIE, April 23.—Despite other re-

The water in Cottonwood is red with mud and a water famine seems sure Hawkers went about the depot last night with served out cold on tin plates and dishes, with very poor coffee. Of milk and sugar there were none. Beans and coffee formed the entire bill of fare, but those who could crowd in and get served were regarded as exceptionally fortunate. Before Guthrie had been invaded for an hour the new population found itself confronted with a grave though unforseen difficulty in the shape of a very drop of drinking water constaned. Then there was a rush to the railroad water tank. The water in this comes from the adjoining creek, and is of a very dark color, inclined to be redish, and most offensive to the taste, but regardless of consequences thirsty railroad authorities speedily got a guard round the tark and put a step to the drinking. Then some enterprising individuals filled buckets of water, charging five cents a glass. The water have been 3,000 the for drinks from the engine present. Ex-Mayor Constantin, of Spring-field. A resolution was adopted to reflect that every invader should be complained of and efforts at once made to drive them out. The feeling is very strong in this matter. FIVE HUNDRED MEN IN ARKANSAS CITY tonight have pledged themselves to go over morrow to the Cherokee strip and stake claims, and let the consequences be what they may. The fertility of this strip so useless to the Indian have been remarked upon here-tofore. There seems nothing unreasonable on obtaining it at once and to do so will avert a great trouble that now seems inevitable. great trouble that how seems inevitable. There is a pressure of surplus people driven back from Oklahoma, and waiting in the territory the first chance to get out, that must be relieved. The baffled settlers are earnest and undismayed. They will execute their purpose.

FORT RENO, April 23.—A courier has just arrived from King Fisher. It is a grown town arrived from King Fisher. It is a grown town already, except that titles are somewhat in dispute, and no town officers are yet elected. Chicago avenue is half a mile long. Not the slightest trouble of any kind has occurred, though in many instances there room about fifteen minutes before 9 o'clock Hawes looked a little paler than usual, and sitting gazing out of the window or at the walls of the room he seemed in a deep study. A few ladies came in about 9 o'clock, and as they entered the door they eagerly peered through the railing around the prisoner's dock for a glimpse of the noted prisoner.

"Oh my, isn't he handsome? Do you really think he is guilty?"
"Oh, the wretch, the wretch!"
These and similar expressions were heard as the women turned to find seats in the rear of the courtroom. It was just five minutes past 9 o'clock when Judge Green took his seat and ordered a court on the courtroom to the courtroom.

He had also, he said, carefully examined the decisions and rulings in the cases cited, and found that the evidence in those cases was very different from that in the case under consideration. After carefully examining the evidence and the authorities, Judge Green said he

for a change of venue.

Colonel Taliaferro asked that an exception to the ruling be noted, which was done. Colonel Taliaferro then arose and asked the permission of the court to withdraw the plea of not guilty, in order that they might make a motion to quash the indictment. He argued that it was a rule of practice that before making a motion to quash an indictment it was customary to withdraw a plea of not guilty.

After consultation the attorneys for the state agreed that the motion of the defense should go upon the record with the plea for leave to withdraw the plea of not guilty.

Colonel Taliaferro then read the motion to QUASH THE INDICTMENT.

QUASH THE INDICTMENT. The motion alleged that the grand jury which found the bill of indictment against the defendant was not at the time of the findingsaid indictment the regularly inpaneled and legal grand jury of the county of Jefferson.
He referred to the record which he said showed that the grand jury was summoned to serve one week from January 7, 1889, and that the bill of indictment against the defendant was returned on the 21st day of January.
Judge Green overruled this motion on the ground that the grand jury in question was summoned to serve for the term, while the enter of the record might show that they were

The defense excepted to the ruling.
Colonel Taliaferro was promptly on his feet again with another motion to quash the indictment. This time the new jury law was the bases of the motion. Colonel Taliaferro said that the venier from which a jury to try this case was to be obtained had been summon under a law passed by the legislature since the commission of the crime, and that the law was unconstitutional and void. Colonel Taliaferro wanted to see the record of the order to summon the venier. He claimed that the defendant had a perfect legal right when a venier was summoned, to ascertain if it was legally done. He said the law provided the manner in which the venier should be drawn, and they wanted to see the record. He said he proposed to show by the clerk of the court that there was no record in this court of the order for the summoning of this venier.

The copy of the order was produced and Clerk Bergin testified that it was a correct copy.

Judge Green overruled the motion to quash the venire, and again the defense excepted to the ruling. Colonel Tahaferro then stated that the defendant excepted to going to trial with the present venire. This exception was noted.

Attorney Barnett, for the defense, then read to the court

A MOTION FOR A CONTINUATION

A MOTION FOR A CONTINUATION on account of the absence of certain witnesses who were named in the motion. The motion also set forth what the defense expect to prove by the absent witnesses. Most of the witnesses were on character, but the motion set forth that by some of the witnesses the defonse expected to prove that Robert Thompson; in personal appearance, greatly resembled Hawes; that he had for some time before the crime been intimate with Mrs. Hawes, unknown to her husband; that he was constantly in fear that Hawes would stantly in fear that Hawes would Others of the absent witnesses were wanted to prove that they were with Hawes on December 4th, went with him to Columbus, Miss., and were familiar with his dress and his movement about that time. The motion claimed that all these witnesses were within the jurisdiction of the court, and that the motion was not made for the purpose of delay.

Solicitor Hawkins opposed the motion, and stated that all the witnesses named except those whose whose whereabout were unknown, that immediately after the murder of Mrs

the defense had already had several months in also much of it which was not competent

"The defendant's statement is that his safe was opened and the money stelen by others. Other safes have been recently opened and the money stolen in the same county. There is, therefore, a possibility that the defendant's statement may be true, and I feel that I am justified in giving him the benefit of any doubt. Indeed, his past life and the marked character of his services induce me to give greater weight to the doubt in this case."

NEW YORK TOPICS.

THE HOLIDAYS INTERFERING WITH BUSINESS.

WHY STOCKS REFUSE TO BOOM.

The Preparations for the Washington Con-, tennial-The Rush of People-John Temple Graves in the City.

New York, April 23.-[Special.]-Wall street at present is heavily handicapped by an extraordinary surplus of holidays.

The stock exchange was closed last Friday because of its being Good Friday. The day following was the usual Saturday half-holiday and then came Sunday. It is very rarely the case that the bulls and bears suspend scrambling for three days consecutively on any account, and they have got-ten over the last interruption before the centennial festivities will make two more holidays, immediately preceded by Saturday and Sunday. That break in business routine will embrace four successive days, which is a longer lapse than Wall street has known for many years. The bulls say this accounts for the present distressing NARROWNESS OF THE STOCK MARKET. It is unquestionably true that the business of brokerage firms in Wall street is anything but brisk just now. It seems to me, however, that the holidays have comparatively little to do with the matter. The real cause of the extreme dullness in speculation is the absence of that potent factor known as "the public." There is no denying that the great bulk of the stock exchange dealings nowadays are confined to the room traders. It is a clear case of 'dog cat dog." The outsider is away outside. and nothing seems to tempt him to come inside. There are various

We have been promised all sorts of sky-rocket performances in many specialties ever since Harrison was elected, but with only one or two exceptions (which were notably in control of artful manipulators and famous eliginos). cliques), all rosy predictions have proven N. G. The republicans have been so much teased about their boom, that cometh not, that they are getting positively sore on the subject. The are getting positively sets of the subject. The biggest bull pool on the stock exchange today at present is the one devoting its time and talent to Reading stock. The perpetual right going on in that crowd between the bulls and bears is as interesting as a play. The opposite sides advance and retreat—fire and fall back—hanner and height that poor stock alternately. hammer and hoist that poor stock alternately

ALFRED SULLY IS LARGELY INTERESTED in the pool, and exercises a powerful influence in shaping the policy.

The grand preparations for the centennial celebration are expanding wider and wider: If George Washington could see the demonstration, I have no doubt it would tickle his vanity. The fact is the programme now promises a display of such magnificent proportions that no American can fail to feel a genuons that no American can, fail to feel a ne pride in it. It is estimated there will be in the city. Seats on the various grand stands erected along the line of march, to enable the people to see the great parades, sold in the beginning at two and three dollars a piece. Choice ones are now quoted at ten dollars. There is no telling how extravagant the vast multitude may become in their wild excitement and patriotic enthusiasm. Already flags are being sold in the street by the thousands, which will no doubt be proudly carried during the gala week by men, women and children of exhuberant temporament.

Mr. Graves was the recipient of a round of distinguished social attentions that I have rarely seen accorded any man. Every hour of his time was flatteringly spoken for. He was lunched and dined every day while here, and in whatever company he went, he was greeted with a cordiality that suggested suppressed applause, By his charm of manner and unstudied evidence of rare intellectual endowments he impressed the pure he were with his ments, he impressed the men he met with his exceptional individuality and won their admi-

He is the most finished orator I have heard in years, and his thought is as rich as his diction is pure and his gestures graceful. cent per month thereafter.

At yesterday's meeting $50,000 was subscribed, and a committee—consisting of Messrs. English, Ketner, Mayer and Hendrix—was appointed on subscriptions to the stock. A committee was also appointed to obtain a charter. At present the organization is without a name. The committee on charter will have the christening of it.

Living on the Reputation of Others.

"Take everything that I have but my good name; leave me that and I am content." said the philosopher. So say all manufacturers of genuine articles to that horde of imitators which thrives upon the reputation of others. The good name of ALLCOCK's POROUS PLASTERS has induced many adventurers to put in the market imitations that are not only lacking in the best elements of the genuine article, but are often barmful in their effects. The public should be on their guard against these frauds, and, when an external remedy is needed, be sure to insist upon having ALL-

The company has already spent something like ten or twelve millions of dollars in building telegraph lines. Their first important line out of New York was the one to Chleago, which proved a success and was followed by others until the lines reached from New York to San Francisco. Almost all the principal cities except those in the south are reached, and by the first of January it is expected that every important point in the union will be covered.

The lines south had to be built from Washington down. The material from that point to Augusta and the coast-cities has been distributed, and the line is being built as rapidly as possible. All over the United States cedar poles are being used, and after putting up enough steel wires to hold up the line the rest are to be copper. Better service can be gotten out of the copper wires, as their conductivity is much greater than steel.

It is not likely that there will be much reduction in rates. The new company will make promptness its bid for patronage, and as of the sender here within forty minutes at the outside. It is not uncommon, in the heavy stock transactions between New York and London, to cable an order and get a reply in six to ten minutes.

The new line will enter Atlanta from the north by way of the Western and Atlantic railroad at the Exposition mills. A line of poles has been erected from that point round the city to connect with the Georgia railroad line and the two are brought in on one line of poles from Platt street to Alan on one line of poles from Platt street to Alaham street where the line of fine bar poles has been put up. The office has not been lo-cated, but three-fourths of the telegraph busi-ness of the city is on Alabama street and the office will probably be on that street.

A number of business men have made a voluntary petition in his behalf and it has been signed by over one hundred forms. has been signed by over one hundred firms.

They say that Mr. Orr will carry a good business to the new company the day it opens.

The new company is building to Rome, Anniston, Gadsden, Chattanooga, and other southern cities and proposes to cover the whole south as soon as possible.

Boy one year and a half old. Face and body in a terrible condition, being covered with sores. Sulphur Springs fail. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

I have used your CUTICURA REMEDIES in two cases here it proved to be successful. The first was in he case of a boy a year and a half old. His face ad body were in a terrible condition, the former and body were in a terrible condition, the former being completely covered with sores. I took him to the Massena Sulphur Springs, but he did not improve any. I was then advised to try the CUTICURA RESERVENT, when his skin was as smooth as eculd be, and is today. I used the CUTICURA so his sores and the CUTICURA SOAF in washing him. He is now five years of age, and all right. The other case was a disease of the scalp, which was cured by washing with the CUTICURA SOAF and rubbing if in the CUTICURA, one bottle of CUTICURA RESERVENT being used. They have proved successful in every case where I have advised the use of them. It is surprising how rapidly a child will improve under their treatment. I recommend them for any disease of the skin as being the best in the world. This is my experience, and I am ready to stand by my statement.

GRIFFIN, Ga., April 23.—[Special.]—This afternoon about 2 o'clock news reached this city of the disappearance of J. W. Crowley, a young white man, about twenty-nine years of age, who is overseer for Mrs. M. E. Wilson, one mile northeast of this city. A searching party immediately left here to scour the woods in search of the young man's body, or to gain information in regard to his whereabouts. Constitution reporter, as soon as he heard of the affair, began to look up the matter, and gleaned the following facts:

THE YOUNG MAN HAD BEEN DESPONDENT for some weeks past, saying that he was sick, and yesterday morning about 10 o'clock he left for Griffin, telling Mrs. Wilson that he was ill and was coming for medicine. The next seen of him was at Mancham Sons, where, on Sunday afternoon, he purchased chloroform, saying that he wanted it for the toothache. At 2 o'clock yesterday a colored woman, Amanda Pitts, who lives on the street leading to the road to the Wilson place, saw him pass by. Since then nothing has been heard from him. His mother lives at Mrs. Wilson's and is distressed. When he left home he was dressed in a black twill suit with a colored shirt and a slouch hat, and had only about ten dollars in his pocket. He was a sober, industrious, upright young man, and has many friends in this and other communities, where he has lived. The party

Before doing so, they consulted old "Aunt Pelley," an aged mulattress fortune teller, who described the young man and said that he was alive but barely so, and was determined to kill himself. Tonight a telegram was sent to his former physician at Locust Grove, asking if he had gone there, as he has a sister living near the place.

THE COTTON BAGGING PROJECT. The Alliancemen Make a Proposition to the Columbus Mills.

COLUMBUS, Ga., April 23 .- [Special:]-An effort has been made by the alliancemen to induce the cotton factories here to put in machinery for the manufacture of cotton bag-ging. Most of them express the fear, however, that the farmers will not stand together, and as yet it is not settled that any of them will make the venture.

Mr. J. Rhodes Browne has been asked to convert the old Columbus factory into a cotton bagging factory, but as it requires a change of bagging factory, but as it requires a change of machinery, he is doubtful about whether the project will pay. The West Point mills, it is said, have already agreed to manufacture the bagging of cotton.

CAPTAIN MURRELL.

DISTINGUISHED HONORS PAID THE YOUNG NAVIGATOR.

His Grand Reception in Philadelphia Greeted by Thousands at the Maritime PHILADELPHIA, April 23 .- "Oh, don't call it noble; it was only my duty, I'm sure," said Captain Hamilton Murrell as he was welcomed and congratulated at the maritime exchange by President William Brockie this afternoon. Captain Murrell has been lionized to an extent that he is simply amazed. Long before the hour of noon, which had been set for the public reception, the spacious rooms of the maritime exchange and the still more spacious street in front of it contained

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE, of all ages and of both sexes, who had, in some instances, traveled many miles to pay homage to the young captain. The cheers which greeted the good natured and humane master as he entered the exchange were deafening and several minutes elapsed before his voice and several minutes clapsed before his voice could be heard. It was exactly noon when Captain Murrell was escorted to a command-ing position in the main hall of the exchange, and when the enthusiastic demonstrations had subsided for a moment, he was introduced by President Brockie to the immense throng present.

District Attorney George S. Graham then stepped to the captain's side and presented him with the only gold medal ever given by the Pennsylvania Humane society. It was handsome, and its presentation by Mr. Graham on behalf of the society was one of the most pleasing features of the occasion.

"In all my while life," said the district "In all my public life." said the district

"In all my public life." said the district attorney, "nothing has ever given me so much pleasure as to stand by the hero of the sea, the savior of 700 lives."

Mr. Graham recalled the scenes in the stormswept harbor of Samoa, the pathetic scenes attending the loss, many years ago, of the English man-of-war Berkenhead, and compared the heroism of Captain Murrell with them. "In the everyday life of this world lof ours, selfishness is a prominent feature, and it does me proud to grasp the hand of one who is so unselfish."

and the cheering had subsided, there was a vice Consul Lars Weslergaard, of Sweden and Norway, was introduced to the captain and said, in a voice full of emotion: "As vice-consul of Sweden and Norway at this port, I feel very deeply impressed with the great and glorious work that, under providence, you were the happy medium that saved several hundred Scandinavians and Danes from the ill-fated steamship Danmark, as well as her captain and crew. "Kindly convey, on the occasion of his

Murrell, on behalf of the Thingvalla company, our heartfelt thanks for all he has done for the present week. Some important civil cases have been tried, the most important being that of Rutherford vs. Stewart et al., for the annulling of a contract and a decree for certain valuable mining lands. Many a once tuneful voice among those who belong to the "genus homo" is utterly spoiled by "cold in the head," or on the lungs, or both combined. For the above mentioned "croaker" we are not aware that any remedy was ever devised; but we rejoice to know that all human singers may keep their heads clear and throats in tune by a timely use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, both of which are sold by druggists.

Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh in the Head, no matter of how long standing, while for all laryngeal, bronchial, throat and lung affections, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is positively unequaled. It cures the worst lingering coughs and builds up the flesh and strength of those who have been reduced by wasting diseases. It is guaranteed to benefit or cure in all diseases for which it is recommended, if taken in time and given a fair trial, or money paid for it will be refunded.

A Baltimore Invention.

We observe in our exchanges a statement to the effect that an invention has been made whereby it will be possible to place the Baltimore papers in various neighboring cities almost as soon as they are printed. The rights of the invention belong to a Baltimore concern, and the affair is to be known as "The Baltimore Transit Com-

The great trouble is that the proprietors propose to deliver the Baltimore papers in all parts of the country with a rapidity that has heretofore been inconceivable. This is the one weakness of the invention. Why should a Baltimore paper of today, which is just as interesting two weeks after it is printed, be launched on the country before it is ripe? Some newspapers are fresh when they are printed, but the Baltimore newspapers are not fresh until after they have been printed several days; and if it is the purpose of this invention to dump the Baltimore papers on the public, it will have to be frowned down. There is no other remedy for the proposed viciousness. If the new invention understands its business it will leave the Baltimore newspapers at home and attend to other matters that possess some interest. We are fond of the Baltimore papers, but we desire to receive them by mail, after the hot, horseradish flavor of their contents has been somewhat dissipated by an exposure to the weather. They are at their best then, and we enjoy them, but it would not do to have them too fresh.

A Disappointed Speculator.

It is not right to laugh at a man's misfortunes, but some phases of human disappointment have a ludierous side. A few days ago a shrewd speculator started to Oklahoma with a big wagon load of coffins. He had made a careful survey of the situation. He knew that other men would carry clothing, food and liquor into the new territory, but he wanted to start a business in which there would be no competition. Doubtless there would be fights and murders among the lawless settlers, and naturally there would be a demand for coffins. So he loaded his wagon and started across the Cherokee strip.

But our speculator little knew what a surprise was in store for him. He found himself stranded for days in a treeless country. A cold spell came on, and in the absence of other fuel, he was compelled to break up his coffins and burn them.

The Oklahoma settlers marveled much when they saw a man join them with an empty wagon. But when the luckless coffin dealer told his story everybody laughed. And yet some of the laughers may need the poor fellow's coffins before they are many days older.

A Solid Truth.

In Arkansas the other day, a white man convicted of driving a negro from the polls last November, threatening to shoot him if he attempted to vote, was sentenced to serve a term of two years in the penitentiary. Another white man convicted of interfering unlawfully in the election was fined $500.

This is all very well for Arkansas, a southern democratic state, but what about Indiana, a northern republican state?

To ask the question is to answer it. The republican briber goes free in a northern republican state, while the bulldozer is convicted in a southern democratic state, and still the organs cry out about a solid south. We are not complaining about this, for when a republican organ states that the south is solid, it merely states a solid truth.

An Early Yellow Fever Rumor. It is gratifying to have the rumored ex-Istence of yellow fever in Jacksonville positively denied, but the report will cause some uneasiness.

The communities in the fever belt cannot be to vigilant, and their precautions cannot be taken too early. The Savannah Times indulges in this plain talk:

The condition of Jacksonville's health and sani-tation need not be disguised. They are not satistainly keep a careful watch this year. The year ng an epidemic is apt to be marked at least by sporadic cases of the disease. The authorities here cannot with safety neglect a most searching vigilance. Jacksonville cannot be expected to herald news of approaching disaster. That city will no doubt follow the career of other cities and by care will rid itself of the scourge. It would be unjust to suggest that there exists cause for grave alarm in Florida, but the necessity of dilligent scinting on the part of neighboring cities is required by ordinary prudence. This is the situation. We have a long hot summer before us, and while there is little danger to be apprehended in this Piedmont region, common prudence would suggest the adoption of the best preventive sanitary measures without delay. At this season of the year every city and town, north and south, without regard to its health record, should undergo a thorough cleaning, and be kept in order until next winter.

A Hopeful View.

The Rev. Dr. Talmage, who is some times remarkably optimistic, is quoted as expressing the belief that the entire world can be converted and brought to Christ within the next ten years.

One is inclined to regard such an opinion with mingled astonishment and doubt, but Dr. Talmage proceeds to explain himself in a way that makes his carnestness beyond question. He says that this wonderful change can be brought about if all the Christians in the world will abandon their secular business and unite in a grand crusade.

This is very wild talk. In the first place to drop their business concerns to engage in the proposed movement. In the second place, this attempt to rush the world through to the millionnial period within the short space of ten years would in all probability prove a disastrons failure. There are hundreds of millions of heathen who must go through a slow development in mental and spiritual growth, and in material civiliall the Christians in the world are not going zation, before they will be, as Sam Jones puts it, "fit to get fitten." Then, too. there is little in the present rate of progress of our missionary work to justify the belief that the minority of Christians now on the earth would be able in a few years to convert the majority of their fellow beings. Dr. Talmage has had a great deal to say about the advantage of looking only upon the bright side of things. He is half right, but only half right. It is all very well for a preacher with a princely salary, rolling in wealth, and smiled upon by fortune at every turn, to think that the world is growing better, but there is a possibility that he is mistaken. The world is growing better-for him. This is all there is in it. He is talking of his own little world, but how about the great outside world of sorrow, poverty, and crime-of utter darkness and desola-

Why should a sensible man waste time and breath in discussing a matter so altogether up in the air? It may not be a good rule to let things take their course, but it may seriously be doubted whether it is expedient or wise for any set of men to sudlenly resolve to radically change the spiritual affairs of the world with the rapidity of an electric shock.

PARTY RATES STOPPED. And All Will Have to Pay Full Fare Hereafter. NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 23.-[Special.]-

The rate committee of the Southern Passenger Agents association, at its recent meeting esolved that "party rates." both state and interstate, be discontinued. This means that after April 24th parties of ten or more are not to be allowed the reduced rates usually granted to such parties. When General Passenger Agent Danley, of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway was asked about the action re-ferred to he said:

"I was not at the meeting, and know nothing of it, except what I learn from the circular you have just read. I do not know the reason for the action. If it was taken because it is policy I shall not object to it, but if it was taken because the interstate commerce commission is supposed to demand such a rule I am posed to it, because I do not think, the law

"Theatrical companies," said Mr. Danley, "form a large proportion of the interstate parties to whom rates are given. I think it is but just that reduced rates be granted to parties. That policy is fellowed in the transportation of freight, but most of our party business is local, and will not be affected by any interstate regulation."

A Location Suggested.

EAST POINT, Ga., April 22, 1889 .- Hon. H. W. Grady: In looking around for suitable loca-tion for the soldiers' home, I would suggest that you look at a piece of property owned by the Central railroad at Clark's cove, one mil south of East Point. There is $202\frac{1}{2}$ acres, heavy timbered, with a small creek and several branches running through it. It lies on both sides of the Central railroad and I think a most desirable place to locate the ome. This, of course, would not be enough, but I suppose adjoining lands could be bought J. B. Moon.

The "Confederate Acre." "Hopestill," on the Flint, April 13 .- H. W. Grady, Atlanta: Your cottage idea is a good one, and let it be far enough in the coun try to have plenty of land. I will give 10,000 ta lumber for the buildings whenever called for, F. O. B., at my station on the Atlanta and Florida railroad. The subscription is for me and my brother, John Howard. We will duplicate it if the scope of the enterprise is enlarged.

If you are open to suggestions, would it not be a good idea to invite the farmers of Georgia to each plant an acre in cotton, corn, sugar cane, or something, and let it be the confederate acre, the proceeds to be given to the home fund. There are a thousand farmers in the state who could afford to devote an acre to it who would not see their way clear in a money subcription. Take it for what it is worth. C. B. HOWARD. spectfully, Loganville, Ga., April 20.—Mr. H. W. Grady: Dear Sir—I read your editorials in last week's paper, which have been read by most every man, woman and child in the statewhich have echoed and re-echoed in the heart of every living southern soldier that walked to the front and bared his bosom to the leaden messengers of death in defense of the homes they loved so well, and now, in an idle mo-ment, after receiving this week's issue, and issue, and earning what is being done by the people of Georgia for the matchless soldiers whose ranks are thinning day by day, I turn to the same editorials and read them again. editorials and read them again. My pulses quicken, my heart leaps, my soul thrills! I love the name of the south! I love the heroism of her soldiers! I love to dream of their valor -a valor unsurpassed by any of which history gives a record! Born, as I was, amid the roar of cannon, the rattle of musketry and the tramp of soldiers, in the early sixties, I am not a soldier, but, like yourself, the sen of soldier, and this is the proudest heritage that I have, and a loftier one could not be given.

I feel humiliated because I did not respond ooner, but you will please excuse me and tack $5 on the list for me, and by the time you need the money you shall have it. I have but little of this world's goods, but I feel that to contribute to the fund for the laudable cause in which you have so willingly and earnestly engaged, will make me a better man and a more oval citizen.

May success crown the enterprise, and when the last soldier of the confederacy shall have ceased to breathe and the last pulsation of his heart' be stilled, may his body find a resting place in the land he loved and for which he fought and his soul a home in Heaven.

Memorial Day Collections In yesterday's Constitution it was stated nat collections would be taken in different parts of the city from boxes for the benefit of the confederate veterans's home. As it has since been made apparent that the idies of the memorial association had decided on this plan to collect a fund to be devoted to providing headstones for the graves of the Georgians buried in Hollywood cemetery in Richmond, Virginia, the money thus collected will be devoted to this purpose, and will not be used for the home. Mrs. George T. Fry, of the ladies memorial association, said ye

"We have been contemplating for several nonths carrying out this plan by which to provide money for the headstones of the Georgia graves in Richmond cemetery. I have written many letters over the state to the nemorial associations in different cities, asking them to help us in this, and have received favorable responses from all parts of the state. We think this a matter that should be attended e, and are confident that it will in no way interfere with the fund being raised for the conderate home here. If we thought that it would, we would not hesitate to abandon the plan. But we ask that everybody contribute their mite on Memorial day in the boxes which they will find at the cemetery for this fund. We need five hundred dollars, and if more than this is collected in the state from the box contributions the excess will be given the rate home fund. In deference to the prior efforts of the ladies in adopting this plan, the committee which had decided on placing boxes at different parts of the city for collections for the confederate home will not do so in order that there may be no conflict. The committee, however, has prepared subscription lists, which will be placed in every store in the city next Thursday afternoon, with the request that they be returned to THE Constitution office for publication by Friday night. It is believed that in this way a handsome fund of probably $2,500 or more can be raised in the city. The lists have been print-ed, and will be distributed tomorrow afternoon by committees appointed for the purpose. COMMENT OF THE PRESS.

We have room this morning for only a few of the host of stirring appeals of the press, that algiven its columns to this work.

A Grand Memorial Day Offering.

From the Greenesboro Herald-Journal. It should go to $60,000-$75,000, and Georgia the empire state of the south—will have the grandest home in the union. If all give who wish to give this sum can be raised. But there are many can only give small amounts, and thus far they have felt timid in sending these contributions to be published. What more fitting time for this, as we grested in our paper last week, than Memoria

Day?

Ten thousand dollars can be raised in Georgia that day, and let it go as a memorial offering—a tribute from the eternal home of heroes to the arthly home of patriols.

Let us have a grand Memorial Day offering.

Flowers for the Dead -Help for the Living.

Decoration Day will soon be here. Would it not be most appropriate for the ladies who organ-ized and carried so successfully into effect this or-ganization for projecting and doing honor to the graves of the confederate dead, to lend their aid and assistance in earing for the living, who need protection and care even more than the dead? We would therefore snggest that the graves of our falen heroes be not only covered with flowers bu that the same ladies who have for twenty or more years been protecting the graves of the departed, that they now open their hearts and take in the survivors, and that a contribution from Waynesboro for the "veterans home" be sent up to Atlanta which will be but fitting tricutes to the memories and heroic achievements of the old Burke Guards, harp Shooters and other companies wi obly represented their county and state in the times that tried men's patric

Fixed Them Up For Slow Traveling.

It comes with poor grace for the south to ask the north to help them to take care of our old sol diers. Our soldiers were good ones, who aimed well and shot low. Many "are the boys in blue" who are now walking on timber toes received from the confederate soldiers. To fix a fellow up for slow t:aveling, and then ask him to help you for so doing e height of effrontery. We can take can of our old braves, and let us do it creditably. TONIGHT THEY SING. The Yale Boys and Their Concert-How

They Will be Entertained. nembers of the Yale Apollo Glee and lanjo club will reach the city at noon today.

It is fair to presume that they will capture the -college boys always do. The Yale boys afted from New York a few days ago and sang their first concert of their southern trip at Savannah on Monday night. The Savannah papers tell of their trip, saying that the collegians fairly captured the steamer on which they took passage, turned the decks into a gymnasium, and, despite the friendly protestations of the captain ran things just as they saw fit.

They took Savannah by storm. The people turned out en masse to hear them and the opera house was crowded until standing room was literally at a was crowded until standing room was literally at a premium. The Morning News gave an elaborate account of their respiton, in which it said:

The programme was just such an one as college boys would be expected to produce. The gree ceith sang well and the songs commanded more hand capping than the greatest eilert of a festival prima donna. The club's voices blended harmoniously and the singing gave evidence of faithful work in training. Every member received an encore and sometimes the audience demanded three and four songs before the programme could proceed. Mr. Percy's "Peach of Emerald Hue," Mr. Munger's "Sunday-school Scholar," Mr. Griggs "The Bude Who bidn't bance, "and the old Yale songs were received with any amount of applause. Mr. Jenks's warbling somes and Mr. Mungars's whistling were the ardistic hits of the evening. The banjo club played extremely well. Rach member was encored, and the club rasponded with new pieces. The concert was as delightful throughout as it was novel to a Savannah audience.

Last night the club was in Charleston. Tonight it will be heard at DeGive's and will doubtless be greeted by a crowded house.

There seems to be some misunderstanding about prices of admission owing to a mistake of the printer who prepared the handbills being scattered about the city. The admission to the top gallery will be fifty cents; to the family circle, seventy-live cents and to the parquette circle, $1.

The programme produced upon this southern tour includes all the popular college airs and many others. A special feature for Atlanta will probably be the singing of "Tve Called You Back Again, Kathleen," by Mr. Arthur Edmands Jenks, the famous warbler.

The visit of the club will be a society event. This evening at 4 o'clock the visitors will be given a drive over the city under the escort of some of Atlanta's prominent gentlemen. After the concert tonight they will attend the ball given in their honor by Mr. Sam-M. Hall. Tomogrow they will be entertained by their Atlanta in frends, leaving late in the evening for New Haven.

GENERAL "ROONEY" LEE TALKS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

The State of Affairs Politically and Otherwise-The Negro Question-A Prominent Virginia Congressman Discusses Men and Affairs.

For several days General W. H. F. Lee, a m of General Robert E. Lee, and a member of congress from the eighth Virginia district. has been visiting Atlanta.

General Lee has been very unwell of late, having only recently recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia. He was ordered south by his physicians, and is just from Columbia, S. C., where he spent ten days pleasantly with friends. The general is accompanied by Mrs. Lee, and during their stay in Atlanta are guests at the Kimball. Yesterday afterneon they were entertained by Senator Colquitt at his home in Edgewood, and during their visit they will doubtless receive much atter from the people.

from the people.

General Lee was found with his friend.
Colonel T. H. Carter, commissioner of the Southern Railway and Steamship association, last evening. He talked of the push and enterprise of Atlanta, and then, turning to politics, said of Cleveland's reduced majority in Virginia in the last election:

"Of course different records carries like."

"Of course, different people ascribe different several causes. In the first place, to with us is as much of a staple as cotton you, and when Mr. Cleveland declare. tobacco and whisky ought to weakened his following, and dou-ted many engaged in the toba Then again, we are very close to Wast and when our people would go there republicans in office, and find great a times impossible difficulties in the wa times impossible difficulties in the wobtaining office, they naturally greent to the cause. General Lee thought that if the race one tion was eliminated from the political tion, it would be difficult to say he would divide upon the economic qu He agreed with the views as set forth ecent addresses of Mr. Grady, and thoughe salvation of the south depended upon t white people standing shoulder to shoulder. The republicans were going to make a desperate effort to capture Virginia, but he had faith in his people, and honestly believed that the old dominion was safe for democracy. It was too closy to brag, but nevertheless he believed the state safe. In this opinion Colonel Carter agreed also.
"The valley and mountain districts of Virginia are democratic; the tide-water region is the black belt, and here the republicans are strong. The white people of the democratic faith are beyond question in the majority in Virginia, but the old country gentlemen like to retain their individual inions, and can not accustom the he idea of voting en masse because the arty demands it. This is a gree on the and perhaps caused a very respectable out to stay away from the polls."

At this point the party was increased by the ar ival of Major J. Van Holt Nash, who was a member of General Lee's old regime c averation t med upon the propose e atchome for veterans. General Lee will remain in Atlanta Friday morning when he will leave for tugton, Va., where he has sons at college s much pleased with Atlanta, and re ast night that it was almost a score or two here.

General Lee entered the confederate as coloned of the Ninth Virginia cavalry, active and gallant service, his dash and lantry gained him the epaulettes of a brig. As brigadies general he was wound Brandy station, and while recovering was captured, sent to Washington fined in the old capitol prison. Here he can near being executed because of alleged rages on the part of confederates, but subsequently exchanged, and on his return the army was made a major-general of alry. Since the war he has devoted hims agricultural pursuits, and the high esteem in which his people hold him is shown by his election as congressman from the Fairfax district.

The lecture took! his subject, "Methodism as a Factor in Civilization, and his was an extremely interesting discourse. Mr. Trippe's Condition.

At a late hour last evening Mr. R. P. Trippe, Jr., was reported a little better. His case is still very serious, but it is hoped that he may possibly recover. His father and other rela-tives are still at his bedside.

AN INCIDENT.

By the Author of "Our Georgian Hills." There came to my door, a stranger poor, Aged, infirm and weak; He asks our alms, weary and sore, I heard him trembling speak.

In strange surprise I raised my eyes,
And viewed the stranger o'er,
On life's rough sea he seemed to me
A wreck on a louely shore. He had no friends, he had no home,

No place to lay his head. Doomed in weariness to roam And beg his daily bread. Amidst alarms, he shouldered arms And heard war's thunders rattle, He lost a limb at Fredericksburg Amidst the storm of battle.

By brave Jackson's voice inspired

In perflous years, midst hopes and fears He served his country true, Unjil the Gray on that dread day Went down before the Bure,

Now, hemseless, poor, he wanders o'er.
The land he once defended Weary, he begs from door to door, Alas! by few befriended.

Lessen his sorrows, ye who can
And touch his failings lightly—
He was once a vigorous man
A soldier brave and knightly. One foot lies on Virginia's soil The other still is marching Thro' mouths and years of weary tell For kind relief is searching.

But soon his journey will be done, Of the silent house a lodger, Peaceful be the setting sun Or this old weary soldier. He left his home at his country's call,

His loved ones bathed in tear in honor sacrificed his all And battled four long years. Amidst the scenes of war's array, With many a comrade dead, Vith wounds, and members lopped away, Why should he beg his bread?

No, no; the happy time has come When a country's love will blos And gather all these weary home To comfort, peace and rest.

Where let them meet in a safe retreat And count their battles o'er They did their best, now give them rest Where hard times come no more. -A. TAYLOR ATLANTA

ATLANTA STILL WINS.

THE BIRMINGHAMS FALL AN EASY VICTIM.

Charleston Gets Another Defeat, While Memphis Gets Thumped by Chattanooga-What the Ball Players Are Doing.

Atlanta won again yesterday. Birmingham is a pudding for the home team, and if there are no stronger teams in the league than the city of booms can show that flag will float from a pole made of a Georgia pine tree.

The game was an interesting one. The most artistic catching and the most vic-lous kicking made it so.

The fun began in the first. Sterling was on first by virtue of a clean hit when Howe got a bag on balls. Shea went out on first just as the two runners went a bag further. Hoene, man made a clean hit and Sterling scored. Cline came to the bat and then the crowd was aroused. Howe was on third and Hoeneman on second. Cline hit a short ball and Howe came in. Allison flelded the ball and attempted to catch Hoeneman at third. The umpire was watching the play and Cline saw it and took the Billy Taylor short cut for second which the Billy Taylor short cut for second which he secured without approaching first. Manager Kent, however, saw it, and rushing into the diamond began kicking at the umpire. Allson, who had failed to out Hoeneman, joined in the kick. Tuohy took a hand, too. So did all the players. Honoman observed that no one was paying any attention to him and he made a dash for the home plate.

And he got it.

The crowd cheered and then all eyes and ears were turned upon the umpire. Kent were turned upon the umpire, Kent, son and others.

Now push out of this diamond," said Nel-"until you get into your uniform." ent shook a finger under Nelson's nose,

And put me out, too," squealed Allison, riv dancing, so mad was he.

Put 'em all out!" yelled the crowd.

Nelson obeyed the crowd, and the game was umed with Cline setting on the second bag. 'That's rotten," squealed Terry Towns.

Yes, it is. Take Taylor off the base. He's 'y sang Billy Sparks.

Neison did not obey the crowd.

The Atlantas secured four runs and went to the field. Key took a place in the coacher's stand near third, and did some of the finest coaching ever seen. He talked the audience into a concert laugh and himself hoarse. The visitors could not hit Pender and the first and third men retired the side.

Turner, the Atlanta boy, was hit freely in the first, but after that settled down to steady work and was hard to gauge. His inshoots were new to the Atlanta team, and could not be touched by them. In the third Dirmingham made two runs, and in the seventh Atlanta added another to her five. At times the playing was good and the excitement high. The ecore was:

In print on a matter that to me is exceedingly distasteful.

I should not have published my card on Sunday If ell the evidence had been published in your Saturday account of the trial of the day before, in which the evidence of Mr. Smith was left entirely out, as well as the evidence of the notary public who witnessed Mrs. Reimann did swear in court that Barker told her that the anti-prohibitionist would give two thousaud collars ($2,000) for her testimony (or words to that effect). She testified in her athidavit that he told her that she could make a couple of thousand dollars if she would help him prove that which he told her his eould himself prove.

I did write Mrs. Reimann a note but only after she had been to my office again and again, and after consulting my lawyer, at her request, asking as a special favor that she be allowed to meet him at my office instead of his. Mr. Smith, my lawyer, told mo that if she had anything of great importance to communicate she had better do it at once, as he was to leave the city in a few days to be gone some weeks, and I had better let her know. This statement I can prove by witnesses who saw her at the office, and at her request visits, and to whom I show di the note before copying and sending it. Here is the note:

Atlanta, Ga., December 22d, 1887.—Mrs. Reimann; The friend who is attending to my legal business is compelled to leave the city on business on Monday or Tuesday and desires that you meet him at my office at three o'clock today. Can you do this? Please answer by bearer. Respectfully,

Her reply was verbal, stating that she would prefer to come in the morning. Mr. Reimann as before stated by me came in her place. If I remenber correctly Mr. Smith's business was arrained without his leaving the city so that the affidavit

The Schiller's "Bell" entertainment for the benefit of the Young Men's library was a great success. Owing to the crush of other matter in yesteraday's Constitution the following account of the entertainment was crowded out:

The programme opened with the "Song of the Bell," which was recited with deep dramatic power and grace by Mr Dean Nisbet, who took the part of the blacksmith. The first scene showed the bell displaying the striking forms and red-shirted, barearmed workmen against a dark background.

Mr. Sam Burbanks gave the first song, and never quisite in their artistic grouping and coloring and trim, wild effect, the wedding and baptismal scenes being remarkably beautiful, and all of them having for their presentation some of the most levely and graceful girls in Atlanta.

In the second scene the bell was cast and the male quartette, consisting or Messrs. Craft, Cole, Shepheard and Burbank, sang with perfect accord, their rich, fine tenors and baritones sounding like the music of a grand orean. Mr. Shepherd, as the master workman, gave his Another beautiful tableau was the "Tolling Bell," and during this the fine voices of Mrs. Effic Stiff Richards, Mrs. Sindall, Mr. O'Conner and Mr. Burbank were heard to their great advantage in a quarietie, as they were also during the Vesper tableau.

In the Harvest scene a troop of gay lads and lasses in gaudy costumes, came trooping in and danced the harvest dance, making the stage a moving field of brilliant flowers. Scene III showed the workmen again in their orge destroying the mould, and after this the tabcostumes as they stood in the attitude of soldiers ready for fight. After this striking and grim pleture came its foil in the form of a farry child, little Mamie Lou Jackson, clad in a pink tulle skirts with quaint silk bodice flashing with gems and pink silk slippers and stockings. She seemed a sprite of some dreamer's land as she glided through the light, airy figures of the Spanish dance, and she was graceful, dainty in every move-

The music of this was exquisitely sung by the male quartette, and then there tripped in a little white figure as light and fair as a feathery cloud from au April sky. This little person whom mortals call Jance Bain, gave a recit a tion and after that danced a flower dance. She wore a gown of white slik, the skirt in accordion plaits, the short waist with square neck and large puffed sleeves and in her hand she swayed a basket of roses. This child is born to dance as water is made to run. She is the very poetry of motion and to watch her as she moves is to see something beautiful which is never to be forgotten. by the large audience at DeGive's opera house last night.

The beautiful operetta "Lity Bell, the Culprit Fay," was the attraction. It was presented under the management of Miss Ida Johnson, who got it up for the benefit of St. Joseph's infirmary—a most noble cause.

The operetta was charmingly rendered by a stage full of lovely ladies, pretty girls and sweet little ebildren, presenting moving pictures of light and color and beauty.

The "Culprit Fay" was personated by Miss Julia Manning, a pretty little branette of thirteen. She showed herself a perfect little star. Her singing and acting were remarkable, and carried the audience by storm. She has asweet, fich, clear voice, a very expressive face, a graceful figure, and played the part with spirit and self possession far beyond her years. In the last act she sang Scanlon's rose song to banjo accompaniment, and was encored by the delighted audience.

S. cetal mention should be made of Miss May McDonald as Titania, Miss Marle Holliday as Thistedown, Miss Mattie Dooney as Heartscase, Miss Neille Flynn as Endora, Miss Magde Lyuch as Silver Spray, and the chorus of fairles and naiads. During the evening Mis Belle C. lykeman and Mr. Henry G. Kuhr favored the audience with vocal sole a, which were given with great sweetness and hower. Both received enthuslastic calis. vocal solo 8, which were given with great sweetness and power. Both received enthusiastic calls. The orchestra was excellent. A Kimball piano

It has been a noticeable fact that some of the citizens of Atlanta, for some time past, were becoming veryl corpulent, while it was just as noticeable and deplorable, also, that some were getting leaner and thiner every day. Many have wondered at both classes, but none were able to explain the mystery.

However, a solution to the problem was reached today, when it was discovered that the corpulent class had been purchasing their meats of that tried and true and reliable firm of meat dealers, Echols & Richards, No. 86 Peachtree street, while the lean, lank, hungry brothers had patronized other firms, whose goods had no fattening qualities. NEW YORK STOCKS.

Blocks as Reported at the New York Stock Exchange.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Trading in the stock market today was the smallest for any full day for weeks, and fluctuations were on the same limited scale, and although there was a drooping tendency the change in onescale, and although there was a drooping tendency the greater portion of the day, the changes in quotations were insignificant. The lower London market gave the ene for the temper of the local market today, and, while there was little disposition shown by foreigners to trade, what business was done for their account was mostly the selling of their specialties, and Louisville and Nashville was weak for the first lime in many days. The commission people were doing little or nothing, was weak for the first time in many days. The commission people were doing little or nothing, and the bears were encouraged to attack a few of the leaders which seemed most vulnerable, and they grew bolder as the day wore along, and the highest prices were generally made in the first half hour, and the lowest in the last movements, even appropriate speed of the propriate were proposed as were among the specialties, were not so marked as usual of last, although Tennessee Coal was weak toward the close, Atchison and Tennessee Coal, and after the close, Atchison and Tennessee Coal, and afterward Cotton Oil and lead trust were specially weak in the early dealings, while the Consolidated Gas was a strong point. In the afternoon Chicago Gas developed market strength and again crossed 50, but toward delivery hour a downward tendency in the general list became more pronounced, and Reading was attacked with force and driven down the country while the trading in stock became very naterially, while the trading in stock became very active. St. Paul and Tennessee Coal afterward joined the downward movement, and rumors of all kinds in regard to the situation in the west were circulated, bringing down Burlington and Rock Island also. The weakness in the last hour was most pronounced, and the market closed weak though dull at about the lowest prices of the day. In the unlisted department there was active bust. ness in cotton oil sugar trusts, lead trusts and pipe line certificates, closing at 2½. The general list closed lower in all except in few instances, and Tennesses Coal lost 2, Reading 1½, Rock Island 1 Tennessee Coal lost 2, Rending 1%, Rock Island 1 and St. Paul 1. The sales aggregated 149,000 shares Exchange dull and steady at 4573/404893/4. Money easy at 22024. Subtreasury balances: Coin $153,302.-000; currency, $16,652,000. Governments dull but steady; as $1293/6; 43/48 105. Blate bonds dull and steady.

NEW YORK, April 23 .- [Special.]-Hubbard, pool is still closed and and we are without advices from the other side, but the receipts of some buy-ing orders this morning indicated a disposition to anticipate an advance in that market tomorrow Our market opened firm but under the influence of these orders the original bulls sold quite freely, and caused a decline to last evening's prices when the mellers of the morning again took the cotton weighing upon the market and prices gradually advanced to the close, which was the highest figures of the day. On the advance the cotton purchased was disposed of. Receipts are very full and are ahead of last week both at the interior towns and at the ports, but they are without influence on the market We hear that notices for about 8,000 bales will be issued on May deliveries by those houses who have been carrying cotton for interest. It is not yet known who will take them up. Our market close with a firm feeling and a very much better Liver pool is generally expected as a result of our advance pool is generally expected.

HUBBARD, PRICE & Co.

NEW ORLEANS, April 23-[Special.]-Glenny & Violett, in their cotton circular, say: New Or-leans and New York both improved today, the former 1 to 2 and the latter 6 points, closing steady Although receipts were large New Orleans receiv-ing 5,000 and Galveston 2,200, nearly all of which, however, came from Memphis, Houston and other places, merely a srausfer from interior to ports, bu after next week we anticipate a decided falling off at ports as well as interior towns. Our New York telegrams say today ordes here from Liverpool to buy and that Liverpool will open higher tomorrow. Spots here are steady; sales 1,500; middlings 10 9 16 GLENNY & VIOLETT.

NEW YORK, April 23.—[Special.]—Henry Clews & Co.'s cotton circular on the market today says:
Our prediction of yesterday that the market was near bottom, was verified by its course today. The opening was 4 to 5 points above the closing of yes terday, with a good class of operators buying at the advance. The receipts however, were very heavy, (10,747 bales) besides there was an election in pro-gress on which depended the day on which notices for May would be issued, and this had the effect of causing the entire gain of the day to be lost. August contracts again sold at 1,085, but at this figure a large demand developed, and the result of the election being that notices will not be issued until Thursday, there was climbing for the cotton sold short earlier in the day as well as good buying for long account and at the close the early months are 5 to 6 points higher than last night, with the late deliveries 3 to 4 points up. The tone was steady, but in reality the market was firm, as outside prices were bid immediately after the close. It is be-lieved that Liverpool will report a good market tolieved that Liverpool will report a good market tomorrow as the situation and feeling there is bullish and their interests lie in the direction of higher prices. We adhere to the bull side for this crop and favor purchases on all reactions. A large profit may not be secured in a day but with a little patience we believe good money will be made by buying cotton. The situation is too strong to allow of much decline, and we further assort that it will eventually result in considerably higher prices.
We would at the came time advise bearing in mind the favorable conditions regarding the next crop, and the advisability of embracing favorable circumstances to sell guano cotton.

MEMORIAL DAY.

SPLENDID PROGRAMME ARRANGED FOR ITS OBSERVANCE.

Different Societies and Orders. Will March in the Procession, and General P. M. B. Young Will Deliver the Address-Detai's of the Day's Pro-

On Friday next Memorial Day will be observed throughout the south.

Not a grave will be left unremembered of all the buried legions who fought and died for General Pierce M. B. Young will deliver the address here in Atlanta, and the different orders and societies in the city will turn out in force to participate in the ceremonies. General W. H. L. Lee, who has been in the city since Sunday, was called upon by Judge W. L. Calhoun, president of the Confederate Veterans' association, and Captain John Milledge, representing the Ladies' Memorial association, and was invited to attend the meeting of the veterans Thursday night, and to join in the observance of the day-

Friday.

Owing to pressing engagements, the distinguished visitor was compelled to decline the invitation to participate in the ceremonies Friday, but he agreed to meet the veterans Thursday evening at their hall, and the old confederates will give a warm reception to this man, the second son of General Robert E. Lee, the here of the confederacy.

The Programme.
The programme of the exercises is as follows Order of Movements and Exercises-The column will be formed on Marietta street, in front of the Order of Movements and Exercises—The column will be formed on Marietta street, in front of the old capital, right resting on Broad street. The different organizations will arrive on the ground at 3 p.m. and take position in the order following. The column will move premptly at 3:30 o'clock p.m. up Broad to Alabama, down Alabama to Whitehall, up Whitehall to Hunter, and our Hunter to the cemetery. On reaching the avenue in the cemetery, opposite the confiscente monumentithe column will halt and open tanks. The Ladies' Memorial association, orator and chaplain preceded by the governor's Horse Guard and Kdights Templar will pass to the monument, followed by the Veterans. The column will close ranks, march into the entrance avenue, stock arms and attend the exercises at the monument.

The artillery continuing on to the hill in the rear of the cometery, firing a salute immediately after the exercises, at the proper signal. No carriaces will enter the cemetery gate except those of the Ladies' Memorial association, orator and chaplain. The police will clear Marietta street from Broad to Walton, the line of march, the street at right angles with and next to the entrance to the cemetery and the space around the monument.

HEARTRENDING.

Something Astounding About Crime, if The, and Should be Investigated.

Is crime on the increase? This question has been agitating the public mind for some time; the expression of opinion have been varied, but a preponderance of evidence goes to show that it is increasing. What is the cause of this increase, the same may be said of this. Many causes are assigned, but few will admit that in the progress and enlightenment of this age that me are taking a backward step in anything; but figures are against us, and "figures will not lie."

A still graver question for us to consider, is disease increasing? If so, how can we prevent it? From the most reliable information we conclude that disease is rapidly on the increase. The causes of same are as varied as diseases themselves. Among the most prolific in results is our excessive eating and drinking, and our neglect of disease in its earlier stages, leaving it alone until our systems full to longer stand the extra strain placed upon it. Nothing can be truer than this. "Outraged nature always demands a penalty."

You may be a sufferer from piles or some other disease of the lower bowel that you consider sligh and therefore neglect, but the time will come when it will be a grave matter with you, producing effects disastrous to your physical and mental health. Is is not best for you to attend to this early for it will cost you less in suffering and fiancially, and it can cure you without the semblance of pain and without loss of time. Can you afford to procrestinate and take the risk? I can and will prove to you what I say if you will give me a chance. Call and see me, or write for further information. I will be glad to aid you.

HAVANA TO ATLANTA A Large Importation of Havana Leaf To-

Mr. A. L. Cuesta has just returned from Havana, where he has been for the purpose of buying Havana leaf tobacco to be used in his factory at this place. Mr. Cuesta has moved his factory from Pryor street to corner of Peachtree and Edgewood avenue, over Stoney, Gregory & Co. When he gets this factory thoroughly equipped it will be one of the best in the south. He employs 20 to 25 hands all from Cuba, and they are the best eigar makers in Havana. He makes fine cigars from 10 cents up. Uses only imported Cuban tobacco. His customers are among the best business and professional men in Atlanta and surrounding towns. He makes special brands for them, and if you are not a patron of his become one, and thus smoke a genuine Havana. There is no difference between the cigars Mr. Cuesta makes and the imported Havana. This enterprise of Mr. Cuesta shows just what can be done in this line right here in our city. He works 2) to 25 bands and could sell the products of 100 hands, so many are his orders. Mr. Cuesta has made a name and it is at the top in the fine eight trade. He keeps constantly on hand the "Crown Head Cigars" of Cuba and sells at reasonable price. Now, do you want a good smoke? If so, try these clears of Mr. A. L. Cuesta. fri, sun, wed 3 m

Ice Cream From.

We have assumed control of the sale of the famous Nashville Creamery Ice Cream in Atlanta, and we hope to push their business to success. We had the pleasure during the week to meet personally Mr. Robin Jones, who controls the business at the Nashville end, and were fully instructed as to the many improvements that they have made dur-ing the past year. Strict discipline, order and scrupulously clean method rule supreme, and could you have heard of the many intricacies covering the business you would be charmed with the knowl-edge. We are all young enough to learn, and there is not a day we are not taught something. In any event, we will commence delivering the fine fancy quality Pure Cream Ice Cream on May 1st, and all orders will be delivered promptly. In conjunction with the Ice Cream business we will deliver the famous Robin Jones butter that has given such universal satisfaction. If there has ever been any cause for complaint we assure patrons that from a personal contact with the manager we can assure customers that we will only be shipped absolutely first-class butter. We have had cans made which we will pack with ice and deliver the butter firm and fresh. During this week we have sold nearly 1,200 quarts strawberries. We assure patrons that at all times our store will be headquarters for fancy brands of famous strawberries. We will handle the entire crop of two well known growers, whose ber-ries always elicit favor. We also will have faucy red raspberries, and if you want either of the above our store will be headquarters for fancy goods in this line. Remember the Ice Cream. We assure patrons the quality will be superior to any sold in the city, and if at any time our representations are refuted by proof in the shape of a superior quality, then we will yield the palm. But in all events we will be ready on the mass of the porcelain lined mous fancy quality Ice Cream in porcelain lined HOYT & THORN.

DEAR SIR—With much pleasure I am happy to say I am a well woman today, and have gained 37 pounds since I stopped taking morphine. After taking the first dose of your medicine did not want any more morphine, and my friends who saw me a month before I started to taking your medicine do not know me. You have made me a well and hearty woman, and I hope God will bless you and that you may cure all afflicted, for when a woman gets into the habit she had as well be dead. When I left Cedar Keys and came here, and when your medicine gave out I was all right, I wanted to wait and see if I would remain so. Doctor, you can use my name if you wish. Many anxious eyes have looked upon this it, and right well they might, for it is exceedingly valuable for either residence or business purposes. This is the choicest I are piece of real estate upon the market, so near the center of the city. Street cars, paved streets, gas and water right at it. The opening and paving of Edgewood avenue will attract the rich and fishilocable to live upon it, thus enhancing all the property in the fourth ward. Now is the time to buy if you want the benefit of low prices. Easy money causes prices to rule higher. Buy now while it is cheap and in your reach. These lots are just north of the new state capitol, convenient to the union depot, Kimball and, Markham houses, churches and schools. Consider your interest and buy one of these lots. In a few years you can double your money. Just consider how stendily real estate has advanced annually, and yet Atlant is only in her inflancy. Thousands of people are calculating upon our city as their future home. Come for plats.

REGAL VENDERS

A Firm in This City Interested in the Business-Some Facts About It.

No doubt it will surprise you to learn tha we have a man in this city engaged in selling sonages, but such is the fact. There is an island in the Indian ocean by the name of Sumatra. It is one of the East India islands and has its shores continually washed by the warm waters of the Indian ocean. It wonderful island. Its people are ruled by a wicked and cruel king, who has done much to retard the growth and prosperity of this beautiful island. The royal house large number of people, and while they are sold and trafficked in their native country, they are appreciated in most every part of the

The people of that country are famous for their agricultural pursuits. They grow the finest coffee, the richest dye stuffs, the finest fruits and the most famous tobacco in the world. In this latter product probably Sumatra is ahead of all other nations of the world. The cigars made in this country wrapped in Sumatra leaf are such as command the highest price. The cigars made in Sumatra are called Kings; and it is this regal vending that is referred to in this article. We do not mean to say that real live human kings are bartered in this far off isle, but the very best smoking Kings in the world. They are known in this country as the "Three Kings" cigar, and are sold by the trade generally. The live and energetic house of Harraison Bros. & Co., opposite the Kimball, in this city, are engaged in selling them. They are the regal venders, and wel do they deserve the name, for the "Three Kings" cigar is known everywhere as the best on the market. It is mild, pleasant and just such a cigar as you want. The consort of the "Three Kings" is known by the name of Rabbit Foot." These two cigars constitute a most happy family and agreeable to biblical philosophers, they "let their light shine." Their lives are consumed in making other lives happy. This is a poble sacrifice and one that is not without its reward.

Now the whole thing is with you. If you smoke good cigars—those that are of exceed-ingly high standard—it will be to your interest to call for the "Three Kings" and "Rabbit

If you do not smoke good cigars-but cheap conglomerated stuff—yon are advised to let the "Three Kings" and "Rabbit Foot" alone. Try the cigars of the age. sun wd fri old Thought to Have Been Buried There-The Police Are Investigating It-They Believe It Was Buried by Burglars About Four Years Ago, and Dug Up Now, After the Burglars Have Served Their Terms,

"Who dug it?" "What was in it?"

These and any number of similar questions were proupted by the discovery, early Monday morning, of a grave-like pit in the rear of

The hole is about twelve feet deep, and when first discovered it had been partially refilled. Under ordinary circumstances the hole would have passed unnoticed, but a chain of remarkable circumstances attaches to the

The hole is dug about two feet from the root of a small oak tree, on the side of a hill about half a mile nearly due north of Athletic park. A muscadine vine is growing around the tree.
On the same side of the hill are three other oak trees, and a muscadine vine is growing around each of them.

About two feet from the root of each oak tree a hole has been dug.

Nobody knows who dug the holes. There are several families living within a radius of a quarter of a mile from the hillside, but none of them know anything about the digging of

All the holes have been dug recently, and all them were dug at night. The deep hole, the last one, was dug Sunday night.

Early yesterday morning the matter was reported to the police, and an investigation was had. It was found by scooping out the loose dirt from the hole dug Sunday night, that this pit was due about twelve feet deep.

At the bottom of this hole, plainly traced in the hard red clay, were the four sides and the bottom of a box. The print was plain. The box must have been about eighteen inches square by twelve deep.

The box had two heavy bands running around it, as shown by the print in the clay. Evidently a box had been taken out, and whoever dug the hole knew that the box was

"You will notice," remarked a policeman yesterday as three or four of them were talk ing over the matter, "that those other holes were not dug much over two feet deep. You will notice, in the loose dirt left at the mouth of the deep hole, a rock about eighteen inches long and twelves wide. The fact that it was not tumbled back into the hole when it was not tumbled back into the hole when it was partially refilled argues that it was thrown out early in the work and covered up. If it was thrown out early it was near the top, say about two feet.

"Now the reasonable conclusion is that the stone was known to mark the place where the box was buried. The other three holes were dry, like this, on the south side of a small oak tree that had a muscadine vine growing around it, but after going down beyond the depth of the big stone the work was abandoned. No stone, no box.
"After digging two feet here they found that "After digging two feet here they found that rock, and then whoever dug it had faith enough and patience enough to dig ten feet deeper."

"What was in the box?" asked the ser-

"Well, there's no putting it in dollars and cents. If I had $10,000 and nothing else on earth, I would give $10,000 for that box, and no questions asked."
"Well, who dug the hole?" asked the ser-gernt again.

"Burgiars, I guess.' There used to be a gang "Burglars, I guess. There used to be a gang of burglars in Atlanta. About five years ago three of them were sent to the mines. These three lad been operating together for some time, and when they were sent up there was every reason to believe that they had stored away a big lot of money and jewelry. Search was made, but no clew was ever found. What they did with their box was a mystery.

"Within the past month all three of those men have been let out, having served their

Reference to the police records corroborated the captain's off-hand theory.

Three men have worked in stripes for nveyears. They worked patiently and kept their secrets, knowing all the time that a fortune was waiting for them. In all probability they had agreed beforehand, and communicated during their imprisonment. And in all probability their patience has been well repaid. The police are hard at work on this case, and every little development goes to confirm the theory given above.

Delivered by Judge Simmons in the Supreme Court Monday.

A spicy ruling was made in the supreme court Monday in relation to the way in which cases are carried up.

In DeKalb superior court, in the case of Wiggins vs. Norton et al., for false imprisonwiggins vs. Norton et al., for lass imprison-ment, there was a verdict for defendants. Wiggins carried the case up, his chief ground for a new trial being that the verdict was con-trary to the evidence.

The court refused to consider this ground, trary to the evidence.

The court refused to consider this ground, Justice Simmons giving these reasons therefor:

"The so-called brief of evidence" in this case contains 275 closely written and printed pages. It is made up in great part of questions of counsel, colloquies between counsel and court, wranglings of counsel between themselves, the witticisms and sharp retoits of counsel and the witnesses, remarks of the stenographer, and page after page of repetitions, and of the most irrevelant matter I have observed in a record since I have been on this bench. We undertook to read it as a court, but after reading it for several hours, we had, in justice to ourselves, to desist. One of our number menaged to glance through it in a hurided way, and it took him over a day to do so. We have repeatedly peated to trial judges and counsel to desist from sending up such records as thus to this court, in the case of Chambers vs. Walker, decided in April of last year, we made such an peal, and said that if counsel should pers se in bringing up such records, we would see if we could not find out a way by which this court could be protected against proceeding of this sor." After this intimation had been made the press the case was tried and this so-called "brief" was made in the December following.
"We are written to the son the search of the court of the count of the covery thing it is

"We are willing to work and do everything it is possible for men to do in the discharge of the onerous duties which the law places upon us, but we are not wrilling to take up the time which ought to be devoted to other litigants by spending hours and days in reading such records as this. And we annonnee now that hereafter whenever it hecomes necessary-for us to read a record in order to decide upon the merits of a case, and we find the record made upas this one is, we shall feel at liberty to decline to read it for that purpose. For these reasons we decline to pass upon the merits of this case."

There were eleven other grounds in the me tion, all of which the supreme court declined to consider on the ground that the judge in the court below, instead of certifying that the court below, instead of certifying that the grounds were true, qualified his certificate by saying that they were true, subject to correction by the record of the proceedings as made out by the stenographer in the brief of evidence. The court held that it is not their duty to go through enormous records of this kind to find out whether or not the grounds of a motion for new trial arc true, as the law requires the judge who tried the case to do this before the case is carried up.

The situation is a grand one, overlooking the city and surrounding country for many miles, taking in Kennesaw, Lost, Stone and the Bine Ridge mountains. Nowhere else about Atlanta do we know of so many beautiful sites as are found right here. No one can visit this ground without being struck with the situation as being the place to buy. The situation and surroundings guarantee a rapid growth and steady enhancement in values. No sensible man or woman can go out and fell to agree with us that this is the most desirable property ever put on the market for homes. West End is growing more rapidly than any other portion of Fulton county. More new houses under contact by 20 per cent than in any other section about the city.

The long time given on these choice lots will enable any one to secure a nice home, or an investment that will double in value before the last payment becomes due. No one should neglect this opportunity—such another may never be offered.

To those who have not been in West End of late we say to you, go with us and see the advantages we offer you. No objectionable neligiborhood to go through. You can drive in over macedamized roads. No city taxes. Good water and pure air. Good school and church facilities. No such property—grand, large, beautiful lots—ever offered in a locality surrounded by good neighbors, where there is no chance of being encroached upon. These and many other reasons should at least induce you to give us this one day.

We took a party of shrewd northern capitalists over this property, who asked us to name our price for it. We hold them it was not for sale. They went half a mile further out and invested a large sum, buying naariy 200 acres, which they are now beautifying and laving out as an elegant residence park, known as "Westwood."
